ANNUAL KING AND QUEEN

Paul Shumway was chosen Annual King for his activeness in school. He served on several committees in Student Council and in Honor Society. Paul received the Dean's Scholarship to B.Y.U., the Elk's Leadership Scholarship for $200, and the Alpha Delta Kappa Book Scholarship. He received the Bausch and Lomb Science Award, Outstanding American History Student, Outstanding American Government Student, Outstanding Physics Student, Outstanding Biology II Student, and "The Shum" was on the honor roll for 4 years. Paul was in six different plays during high school.

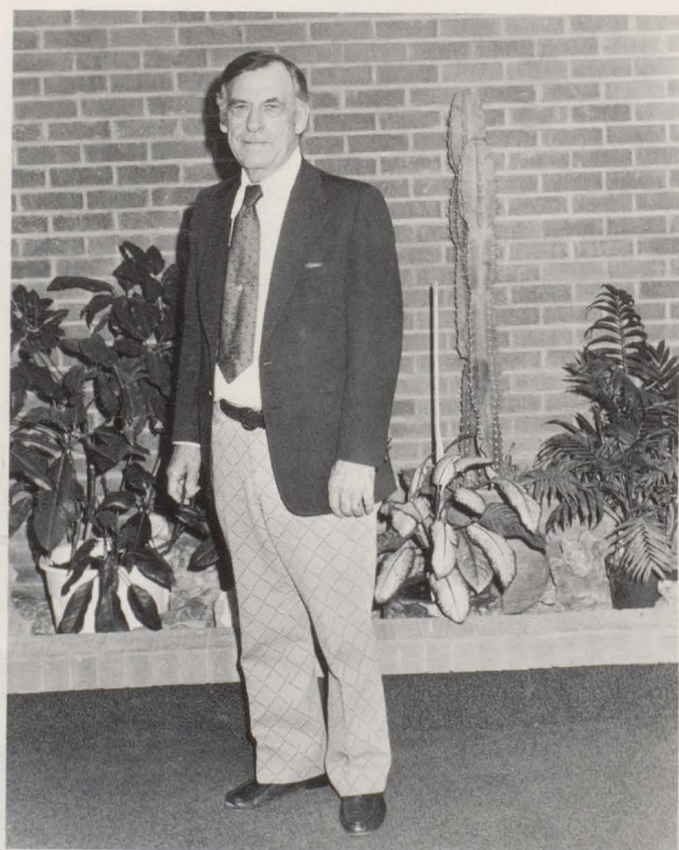

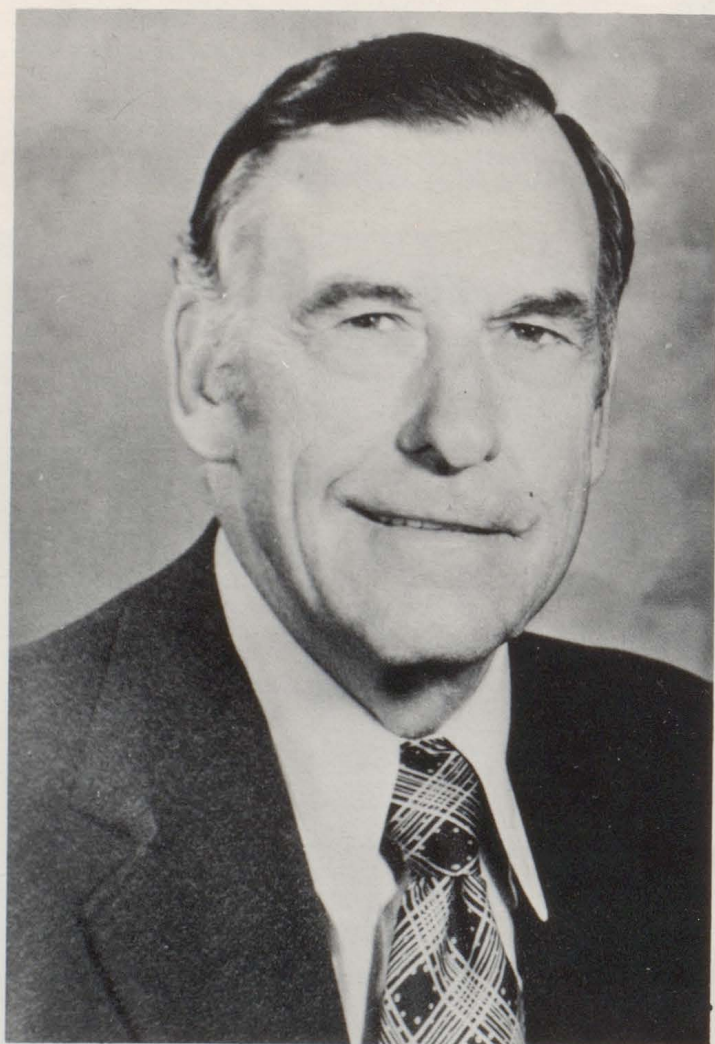

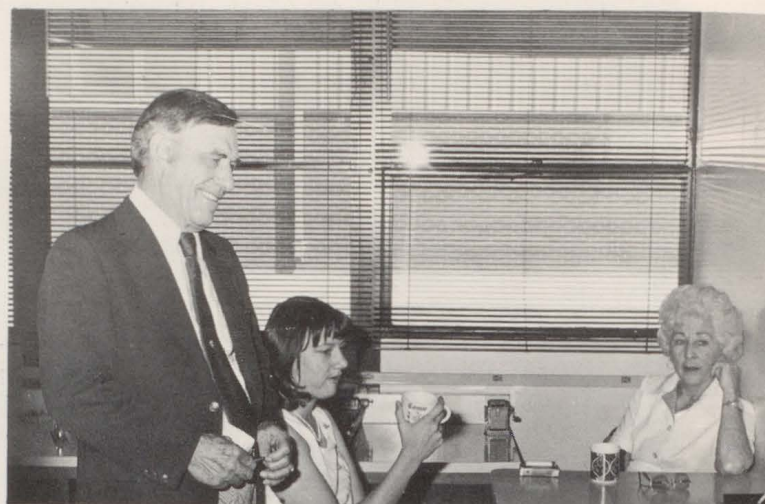

Leellen MacLean was active all 4 years and has a reputation of always being there when she is needed. She helped create the "W" that burned the longest in our history. She was in PURE AS THE DRIVEN SNOW, and helped to make it interesting for the rest of the cast. She was on various committees for Student Council, including the intercom committee. Leellen, also known by friends as "Super V," "Muscar," "Lou," and various other aliases, says, "Stick with what you believe and don't let the crowd influence you."

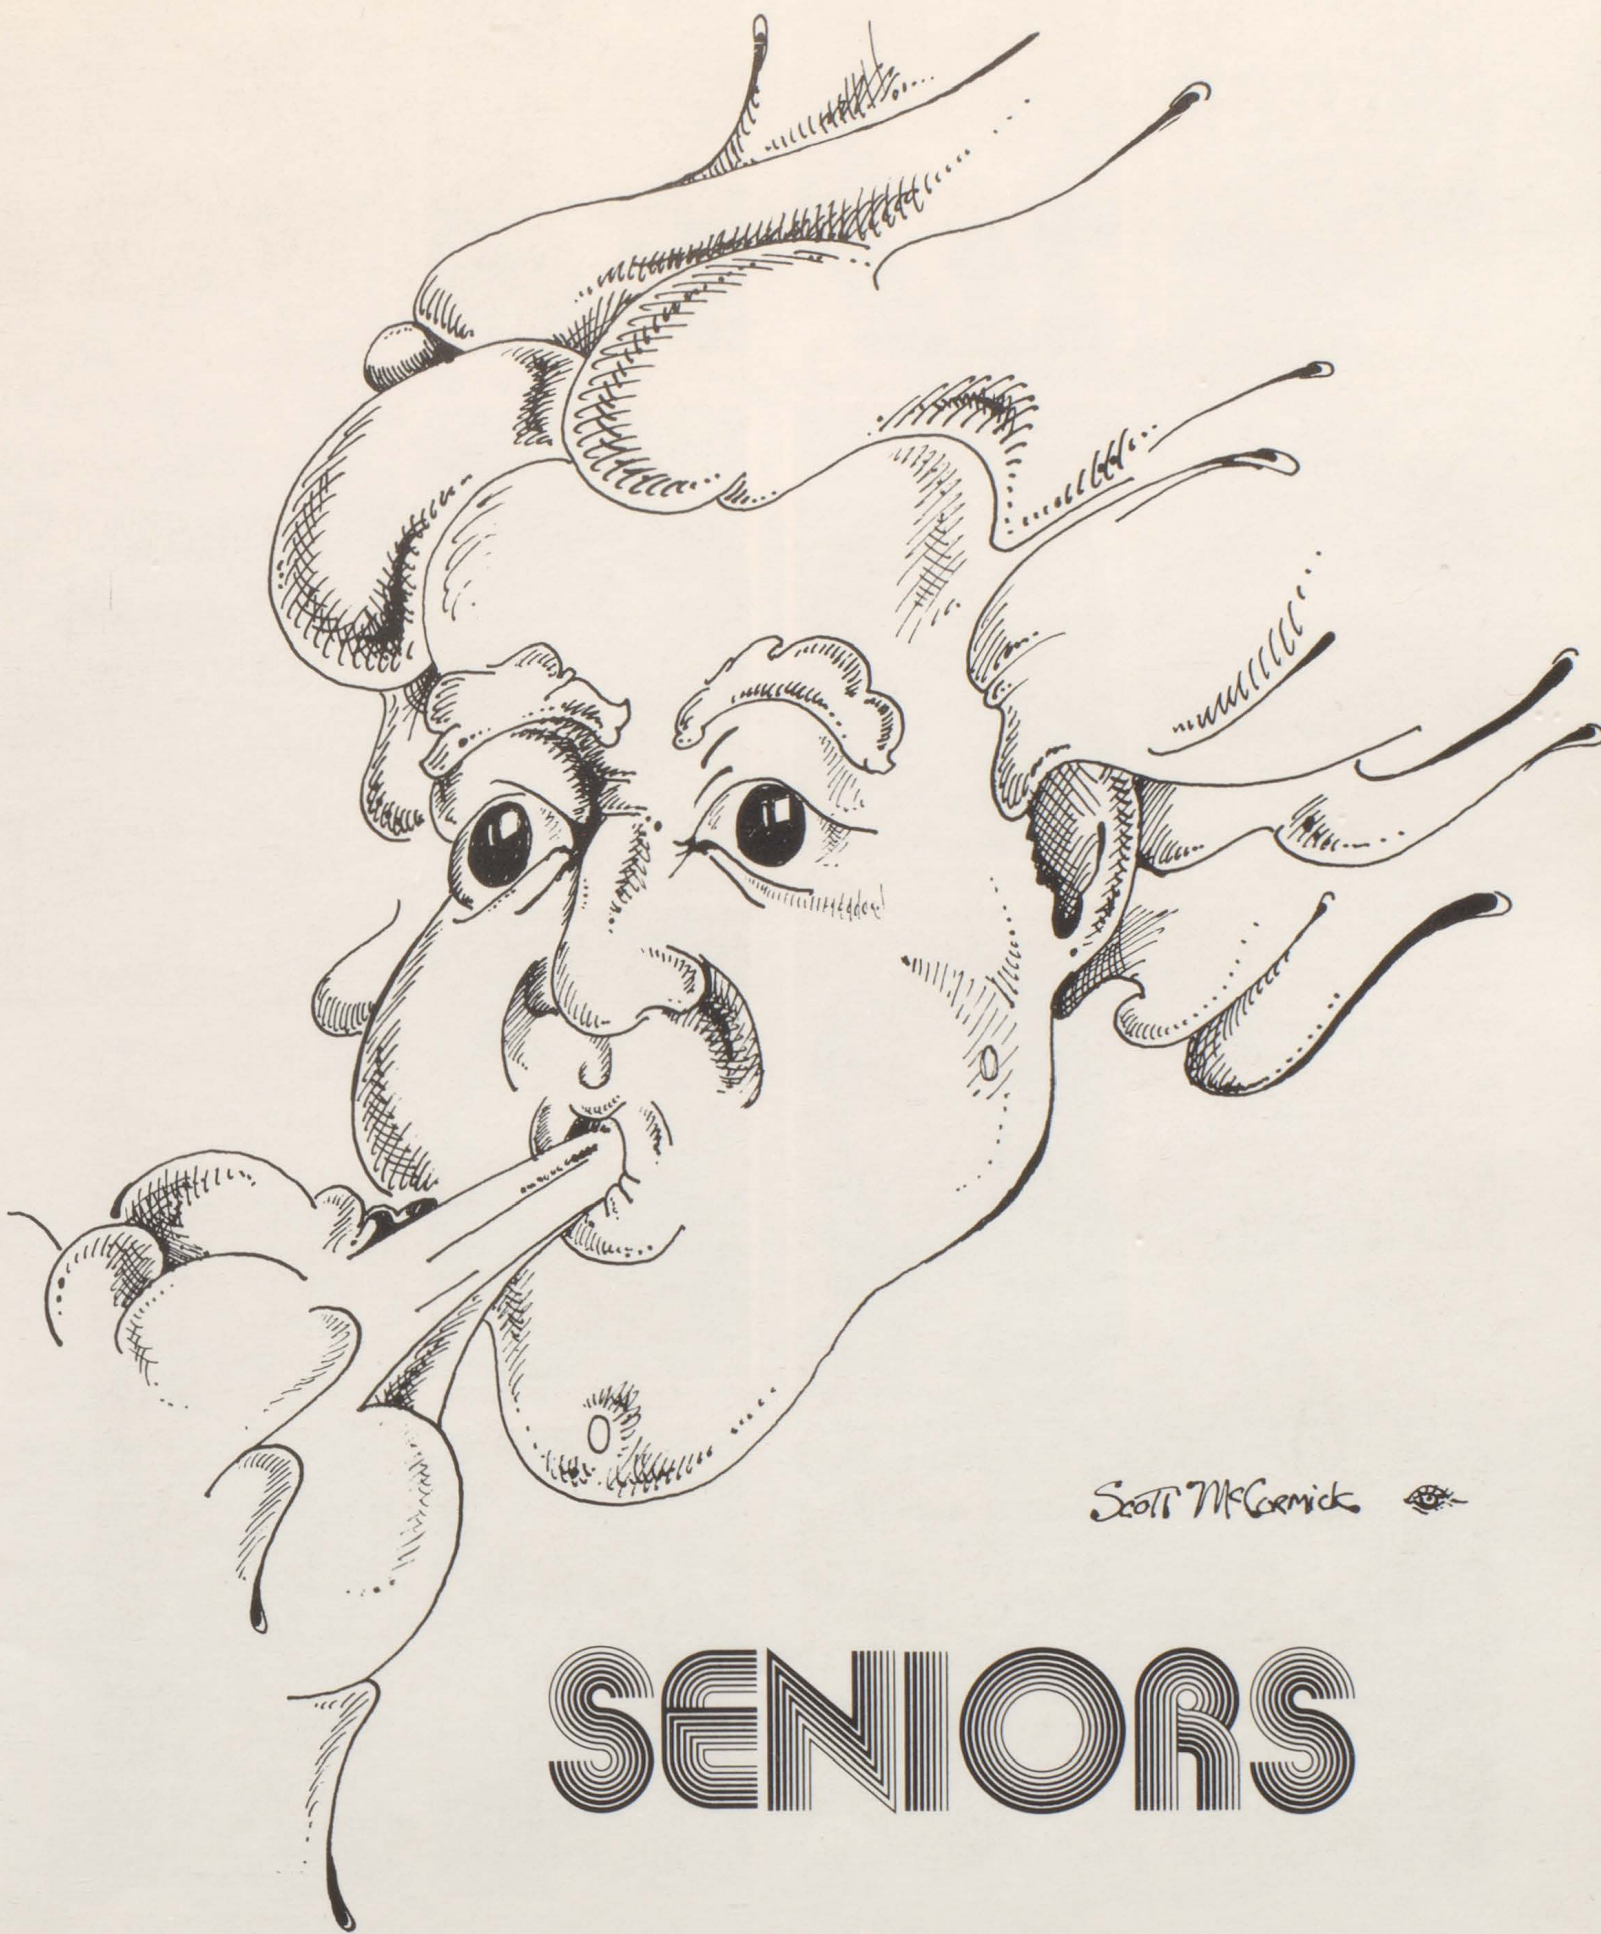

'77 Meteor Is Dedicated to Mr. Fritz Dahlen

The annual staff chose Mr. Fritz Dahlen as the dedicatee of the '77 Meteor. Mr. Dahlen retired during spring, after 28 years of service to the Winslow Public School system. He was superintendent for the last six years. During that time, he did much to greatly improve the public schools, and in particular, the high school.

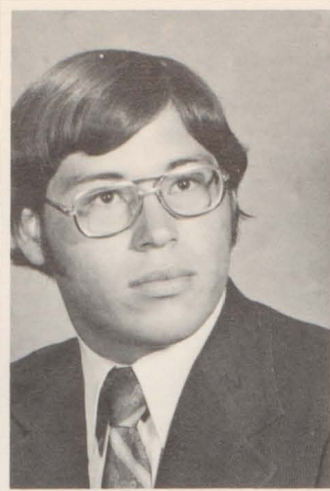

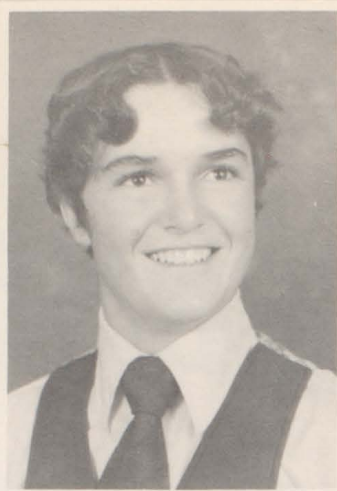

Mr. Dahlen started teaching in Winslow at Roosevelt School in 1949. He was principal of the Indian dormitory, then called Emmons dormitory, for six months, when the dormitory was first built. He then filled the vacancy left by the principal of the Washington-Lincoln school. Afterwards, he became assistant superintendent under Ray Booth, and later, he moved up to superintendent. The staff wishes to recognize Mr. Dahlen for these and many other accomplishments.

CLASS OF '77 OFFICERS

This year's senior class of '77 had a total membership of 192. The class can be considered fairly large in comparison to previous classes. The class candidate, Cynthia Wilson, won Miss Merry Christmas. The seniors were also the class voted as having the Best School Spirit. They were able to raise $1,900 to use for their various senior activities. The class kept busy all year by making paper chains, decorating trees and building floats. The class followed the new three year tradition of going to Big Surf on Ditch Day. To show how unique this year's seniors were they had turkey for their Senior Banquet. The Seniors of 1977 will certainly be remembered.

AWARDS FOR CLASS OF 1977

The yearbook staff nominated and voted for seniors to win the awards of: Best Dressed, Most Likely to Succeed, Mr. and Ms. Congeniality, and Most Charming Couple. The winners of this contest were, Top Left, Jeff Kirkland and Elyse Greer, Best Dressed. Top Right, Harold Soehner and Diane Scheid, Most Likely to Succeed. Center, Tony Ruiz and Karen Williams, Mr. and Ms. Congeniality. Bottom, Mary Berry and Terry Richard, Most Charming Couple. The annual staff felt that they made good decisions, and hope that you agree.

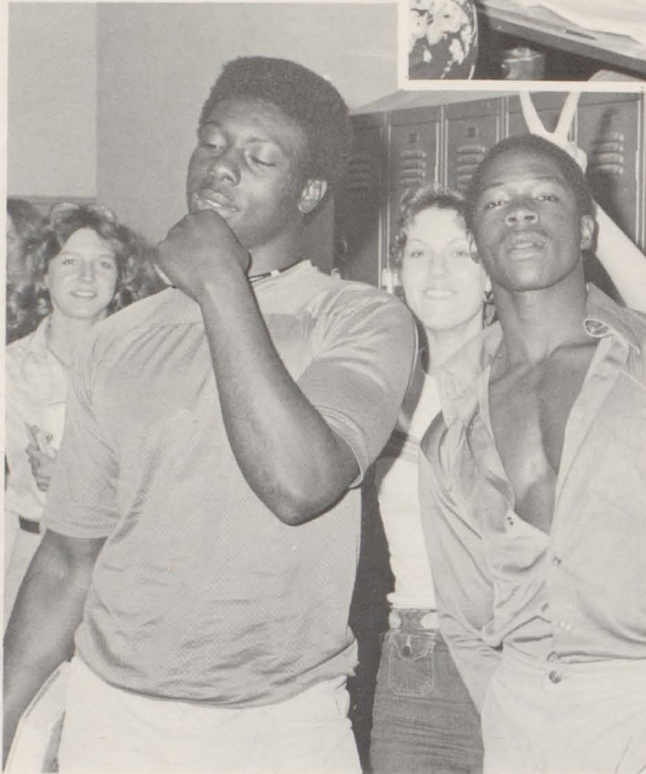

COUPLES ON CAMPUS

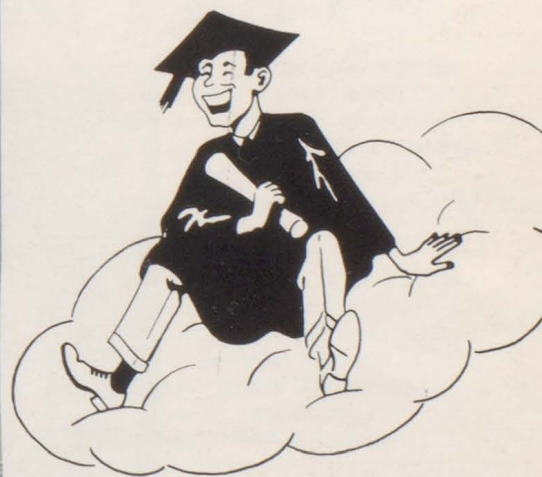

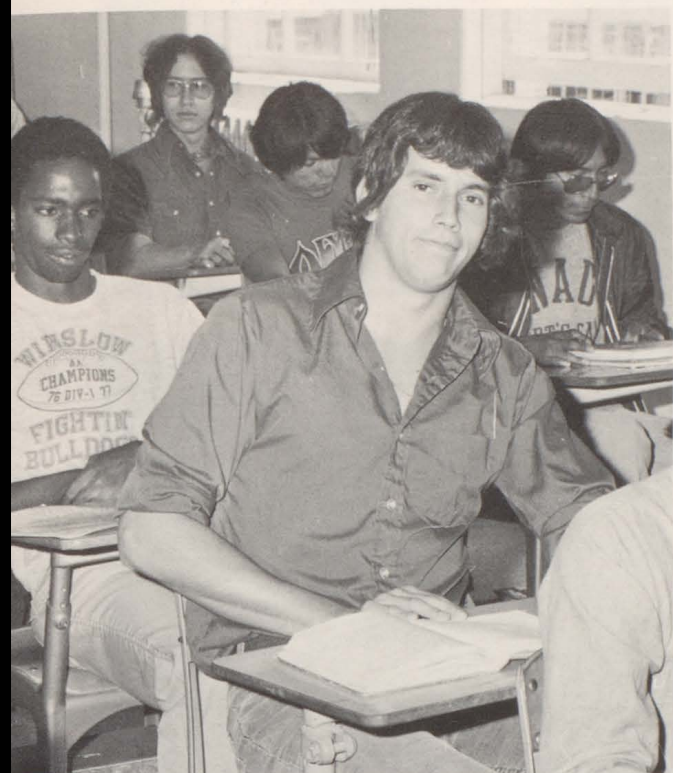

When the photographers were given the assignment to take pictures of couples on campus, they at first found it quite difficult. It seems that every-time they got close to the couples, the couples would hide. So with quick intelligence the photographers decided to take telescopic shots of the couples they found together on campus. Those couples captured by the camera were, Top Left, Ron Owsley and Sylvia Duran, Top Right, Brenda Williams and Ron Colbath, Center, Susan McLaws and Victor Martinez, Bottom, Steve Falling and Deidre Poisall.

JR.-SR. PLAY

The Junior and Senior plays were combined this year due to lack of time, and the two classes produced, "Seventeenth Summer." The cast had 13 members and the crew consisted of three people: Dorothea Thiele, Dana Pleasants, and Nancy Ngai. The play was directed by Bob Howell. The female lead was Diane Scheid, and the male lead was Bill Thomack.

Hardworking People in Special Classes

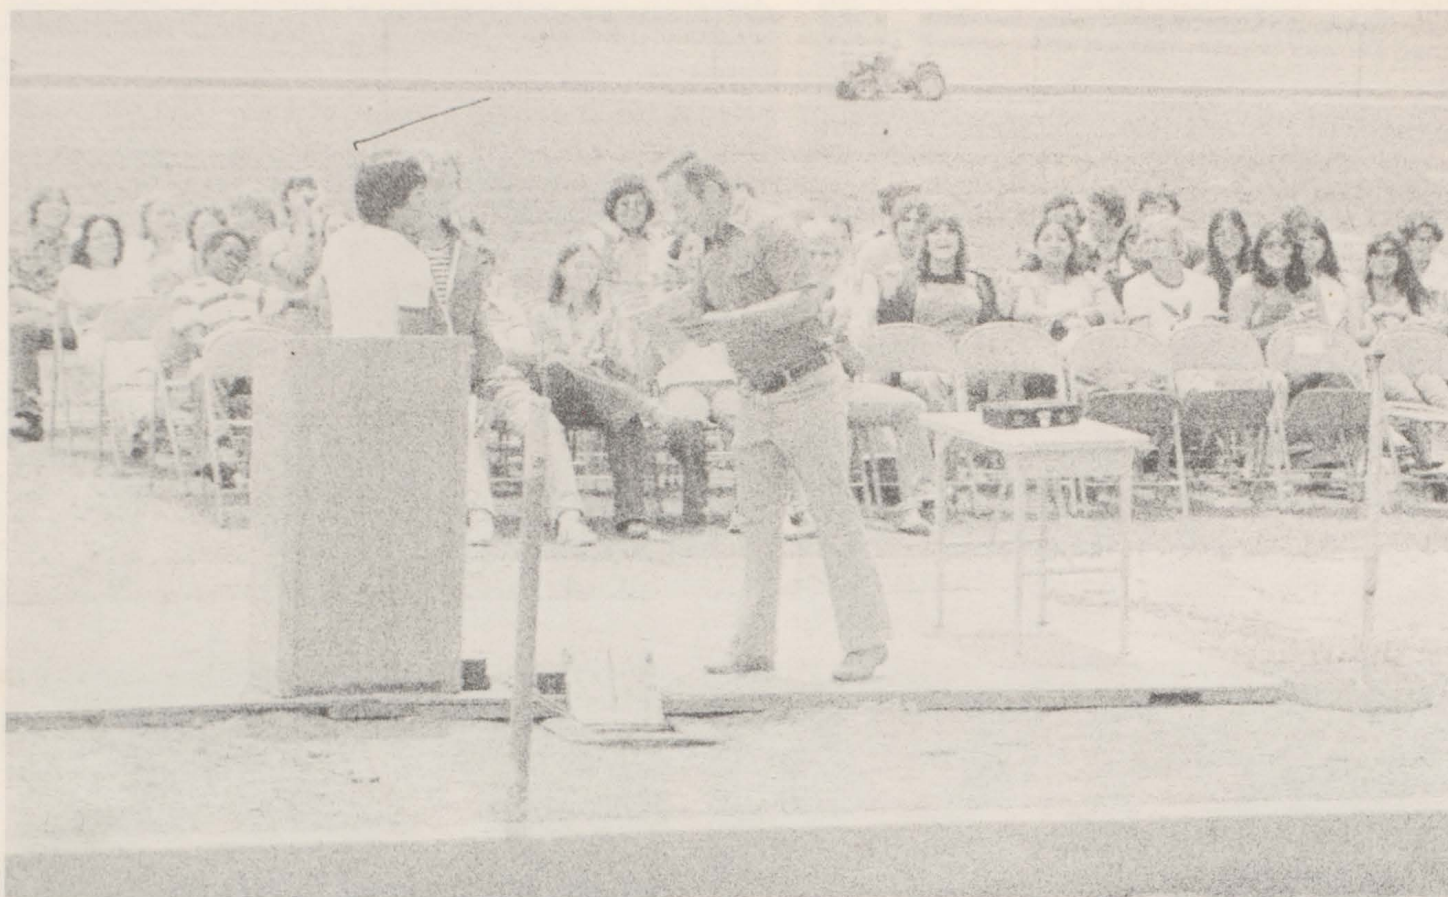

It takes some special people to make our school special. We have shown only a few of the people that go all out for their classes and teachers. Top Left, Paul Shumway and Leellen MacLean pose for a formal shot after they won Annual King and Queen. Top Right, Joe Breeze and Donald Summersgill perform before their English class in one of Shakespeare's plays. Bottom Left, Scott McCormick, the artist for both the school paper and for the yearbook, concentrates on his work. Bottom Right, Mary McKay, Barb Iler, and Debbie DeAngelis act out the three witches in Shakespeare's MACBETH.

SENIOR HOP

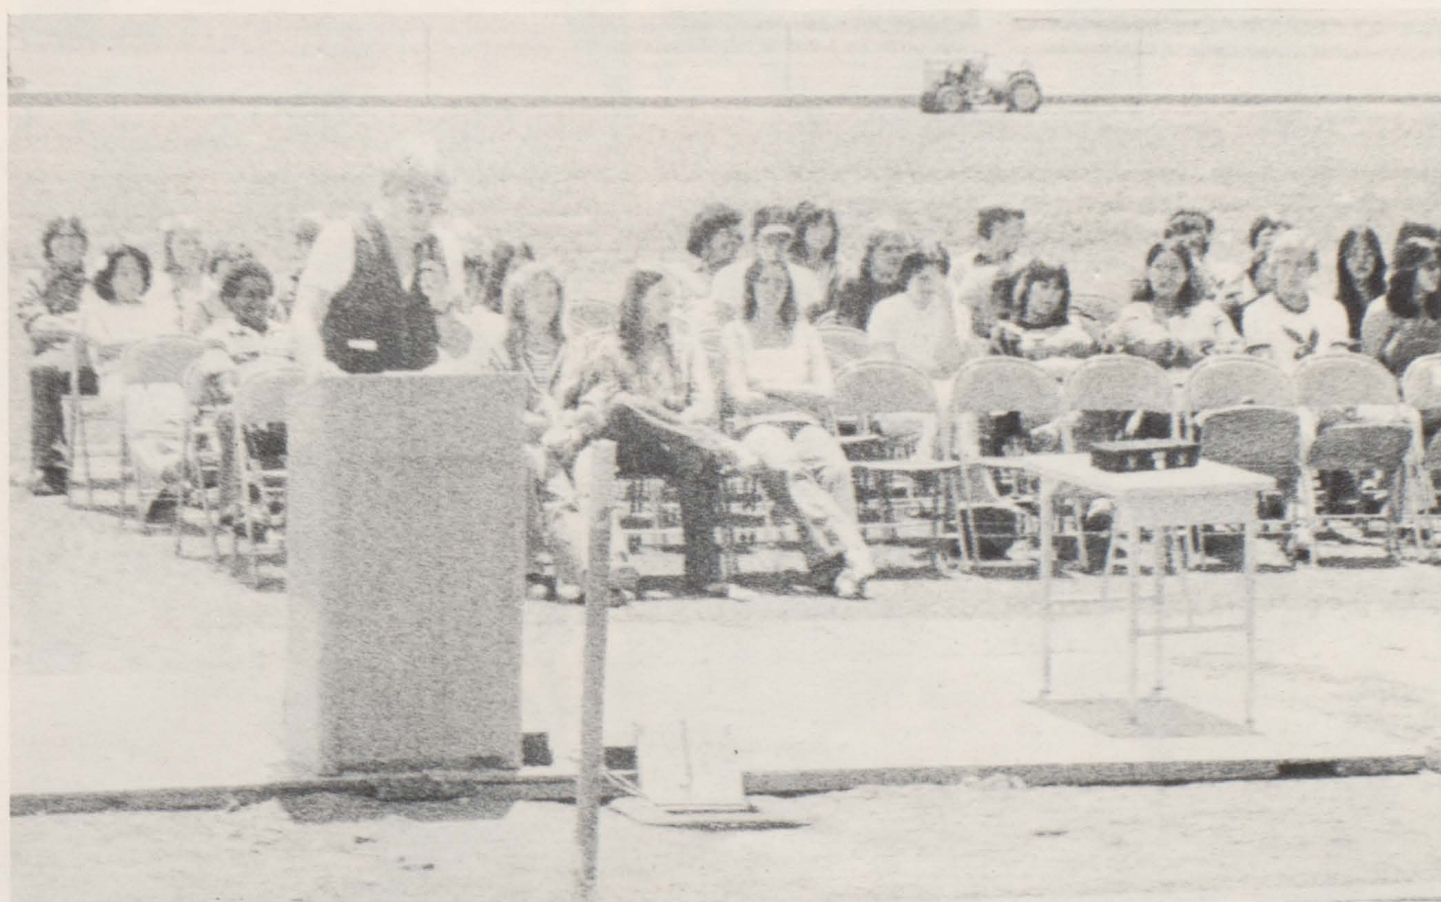

FROM THE MISTY PAST

In the far corners of our minds all we have left are shadowy memories of all the events that happened on Class Day '77. The Seniors did a skit of a class reunion in 1987, in which they honored members of their J.V. basketball team. Diane Scheid presented the School Key to Don Summersgill. The big day ended with the seniors rushing to their cars for water balloons.

CLASS DAY OF 1977

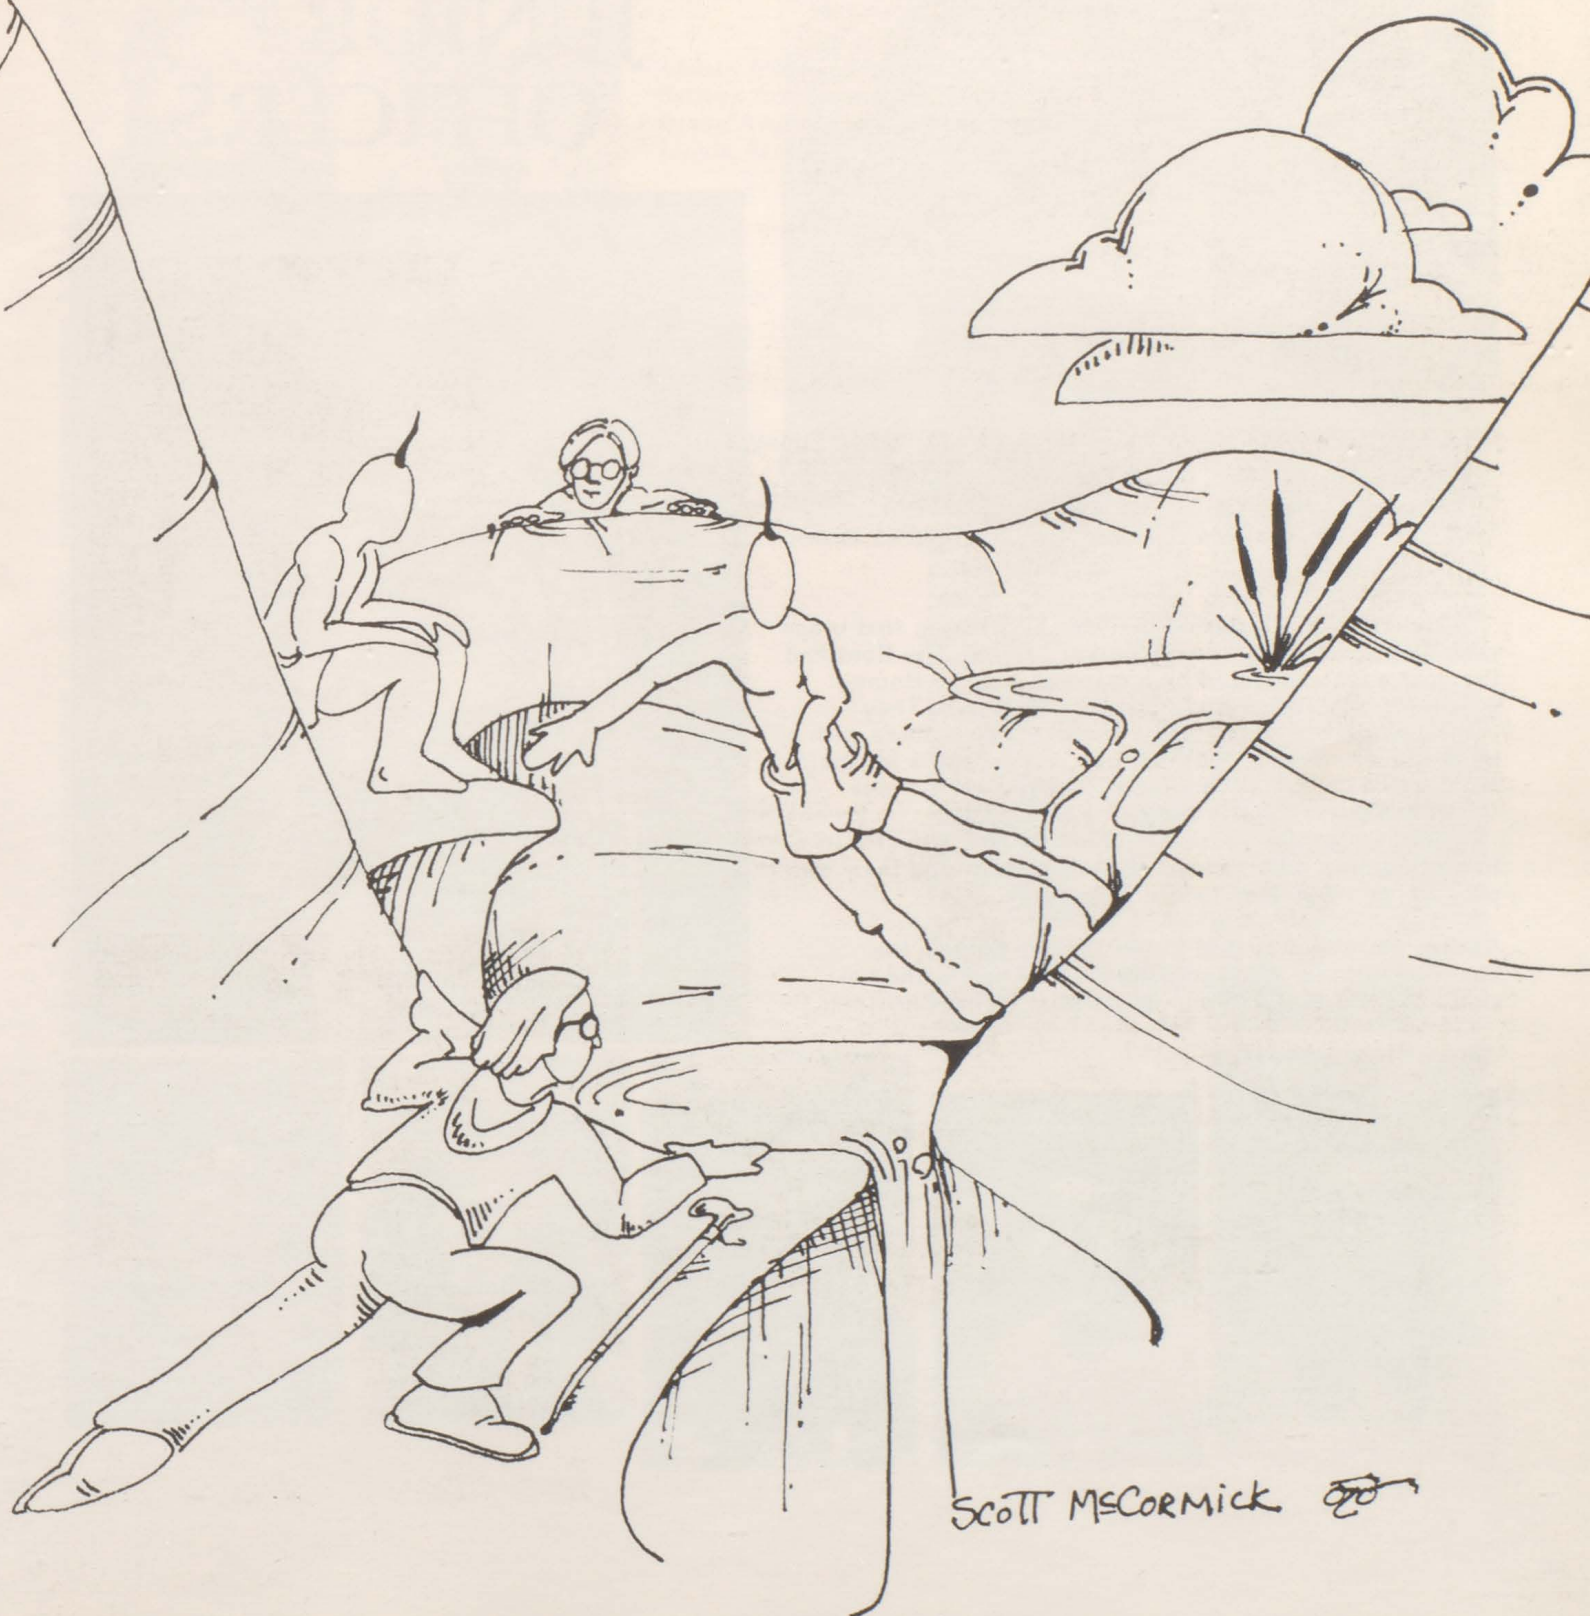

SENIOR BANQUET

The theme for the senior banquet was "The Way We Were," and the guest speaker was Mr. Tom Whipple who reminisced about the way things were when he was in high school. The senior band members played for the occasion, Pat Aragon read the class poem, and Mary Berry and Elyse Greer sang the class song.

JUNIOR OFFICERS

The class of '78 started the year by winning first place with their float in the Homecoming parade. The float had the goal posts connected by a rainbow and the Homecoming theme which was "Today's The Day". They continued their winning streak by taking first place with their Christmas tree, and they won second place for their Miss Merry Christmas candidate. They lost out in the Christmas chain contest and came in fourth.

Unlike previous years the juniors joined with seniors in putting on a play instead of each class giving their own play as had been done before in the past.

Above, Mary McKay and Kathy Conner work in the concession stand. At Right, Debbie DeAngelis and the smile that made her runner-up as Miss Merry Christmas.

TWIRP WEEK

In 1977 the sophomores decided to expand the Twirp Day into a full week of hilarious contests. The activities for Twirp Week were bum day, crazy tie and sock day, crazy hat day, and Mr. and Miss Lovely Legs. The winners for Twirp Week were Mr. Walton, the bumiest bum; Tess O'Haco, the craziest tie; and Cheri Stucker, the craziest hat. Four candidates from each class participated in the legs contest and modeled their beautiful legs. Winners were Jeanne Sorensen and Bill Herron. Twirp Week ended with a Saturday night dance. Upper Right are two candidates for lovely legs; Below, Mr. and Miss Lovely Legs; Center Right, Robin Conway, Tammy Wilson, Jaye Barris and Cheri Stucker under the prize winning hat; Lower Left, Don Summersgill and tie; Lower Right, the "lovely legs."

FRESHMEN

The class of '80 had a good beginning of their four years in high school, when they took 1st place in the Christmas chain contest with a chain that was over 700 feet long. Then they produced a tree that took 2nd place in the annual Christmas tree contest. The class placed 4th with their float in the Homecoming parade and then used the materials from the float to wrap around the W that they burned at the next football game. They also placed 4th in the Miss Merry Christmas Contest.

The attendance at class meetings was better than in past years.

ORIENTATION

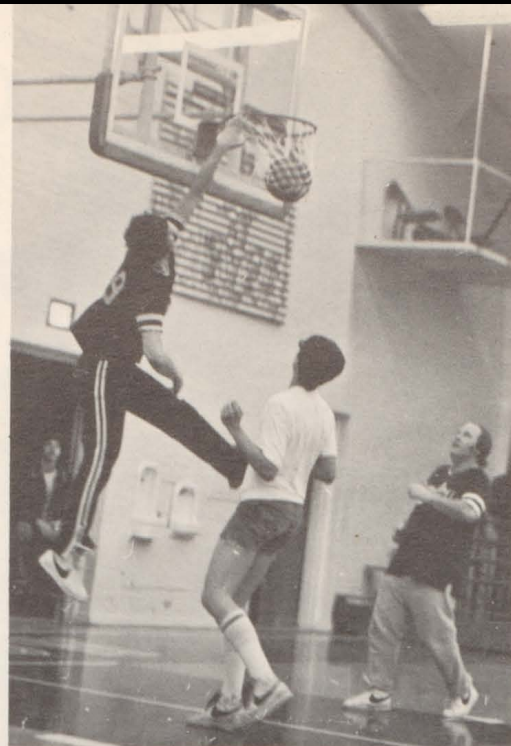

Every year it has been a tradition to hold Freshman Orientation in order to introduce the freshmen into life at W.H.S. This year was no exception.

Slave week was filled with fun and laughter as owners dressed their slaves in costumes ranging from night gowns and curlers to leisure suits worn in the 17th century. Not to mention the makeup jobs done on the freshman faces. Also there was a contest every lunch hour in which owners could enter their slaves, and they were: the licorice race, the banana eating contest, the chalk walk, the shaving cream race, and the traditional "Peanut 500." Since there is an exception to every rule, this year lemons were used instead of peanuts.

Shown Clockwise From Upper Left, Jerry Libsch displays his makeup job. Anthony Poolheco participates in shaving cream race. Student Council performs for freshmen. Freshmen participate in "Peanut 500." Rusty Davis and his sister, Patty display his costume. Anthony Poolheco after shaving cream race. Freshmen participating in licorice race.

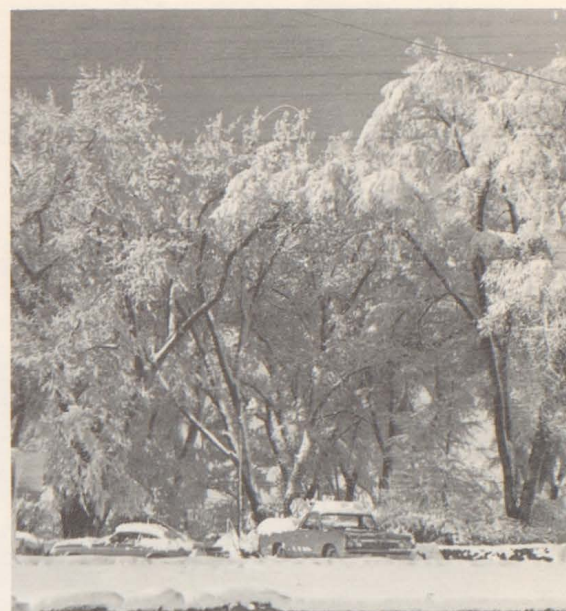

The faculty won the annual Honor Society--Faculty basketball game, that was held again this year, with a score of 80-79. The money earned was given to the animal shelter. Opposite, Left, Mr. Renkens shoots while members of the Honor Society attempt to stop him. Right, Mr. Griffith makes two points with Mike Mead and Mr. Petronovich looking on. Center, members of the "Meteors" are: Lane Leppin, John West, Kerry Pugh, David Sedillo, Bill Herron, Mont Garner, and Alvin Nelson.

The beautiful "Meteors", who were drafted by Dorothea Thiele, added a sense of charm and sophistication with their hilarious exhibition. Opposite, Left, Tony Ruiz is caught by the camera. Right, Tom Benham and Mr. Petronovich jump for the ball. This was the sixth year that the game has been held. Unfortunately, not many people attended.

On Thursday, February 24, Winslow had the so called, "snow of the year." It snowed all Thursday afternoon and evening, and by Friday morning there was about 10 inches of snow. Ironically the Saturday previous to this snow found students in shorts and swim suits basking in the heat. Soon after the snow melted the dreary winds began once again.

Upon waking on Friday morning many felt that Winslow appeared as a "fantasy" and "fairyland," a very cold "fantasy" at that. Trees were drooping to the ground from the weight of the snow and everything in sight was covered. The photographers were asked to take pictures of the snow and on this page are a few of the pictures they came up with.

FADS AND

Like all years, 1976 - 1977 had its share of fads and fashion, those things that are considered "in."

Top, Elyse Greer, Left, and Diane Nelson, Right, in cowl neck sweaters, Steve Falling, Center, is shown in overalls with buttons, and the popular skateboard. Center Left, Steve Falling in his overalls, Debbie DeAngelis in sweater, turtleneck, and Levis with braided pockets, and Alvin Nelson with Levis with diagonal seams running V-shaped from the knee down. Center Right, earth shoes and fancy socks. Bottom Left, writing on shirts is popular. Back Row, Kay Taylor and Mary Berry. Front Row, Dorothea Thiele, Leellen MacLean, and Nancy Ngai. Bottom Right, Rhonda Lehr, Danette Richards, and Dixie Smith show "feathered bangs."

BOYS AND GIRLS STATE

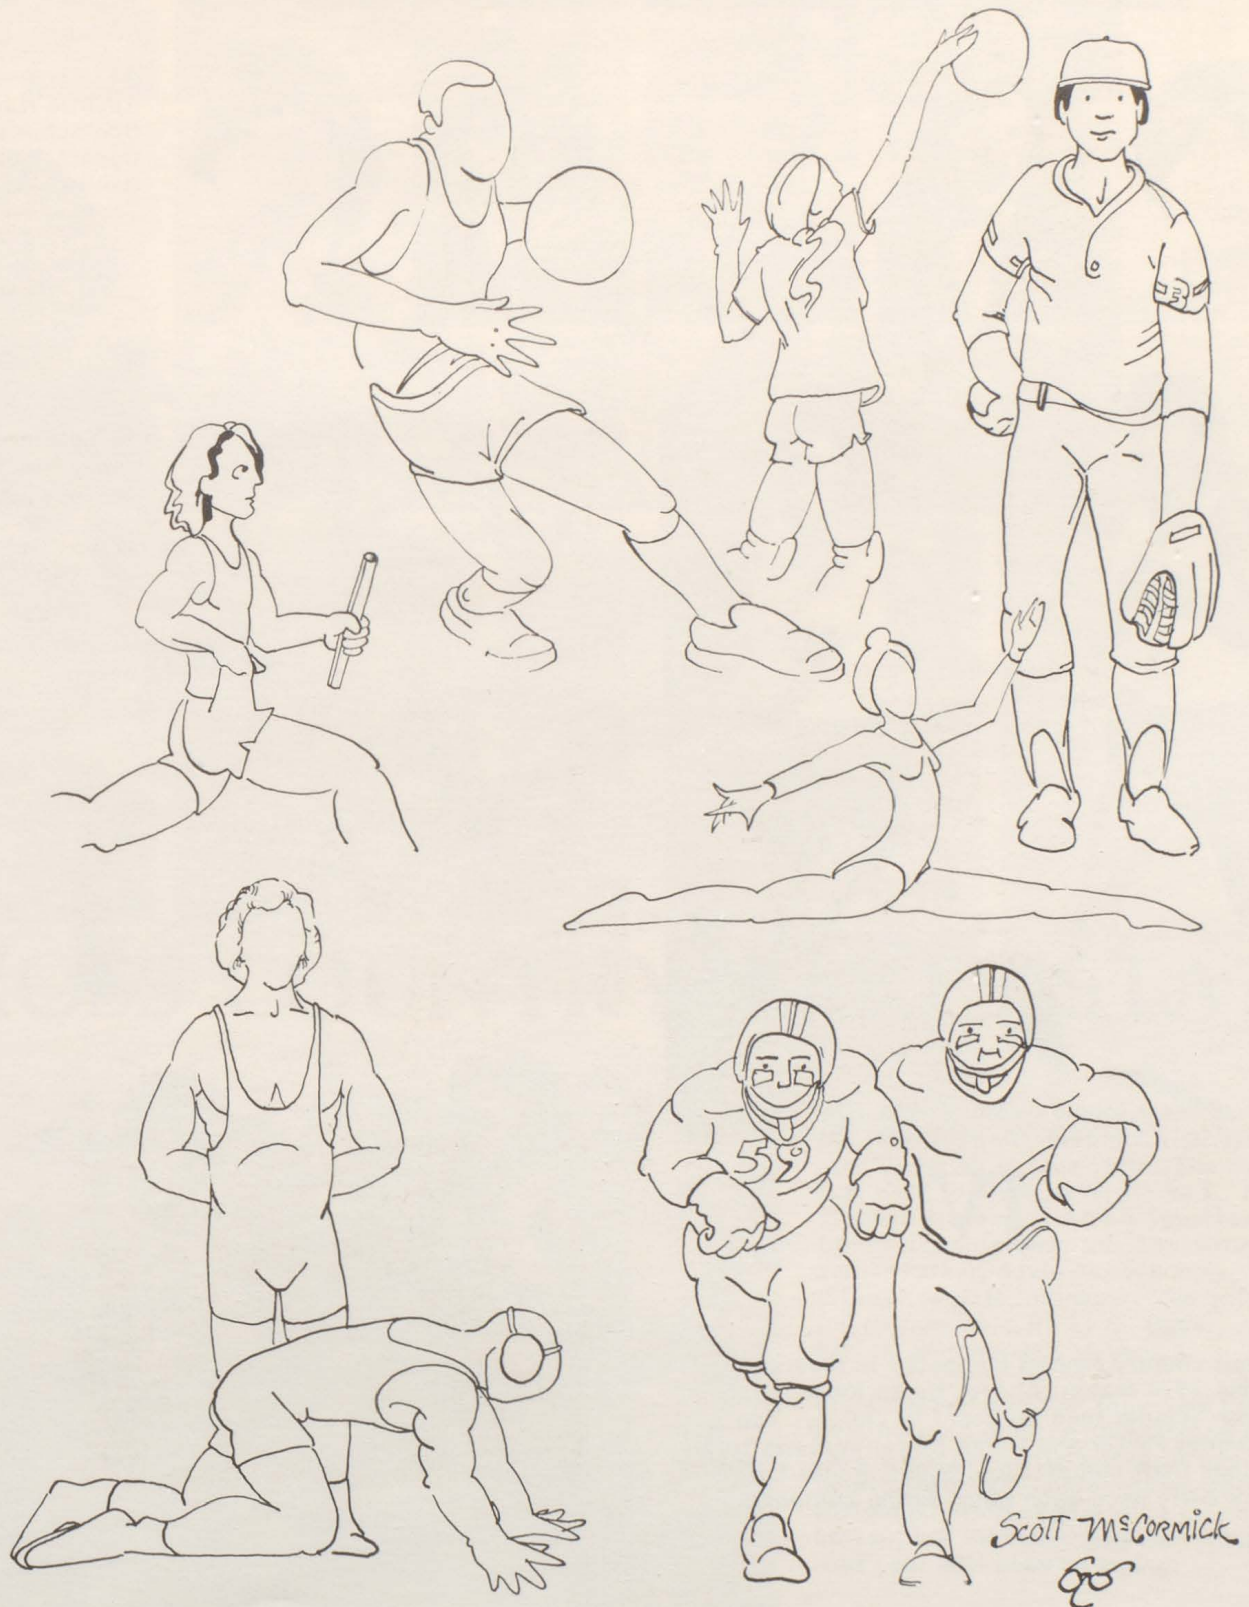

From Top to Bottom are

Harold Soehner, who at-

CROSS COUNTRY TAKES STATE

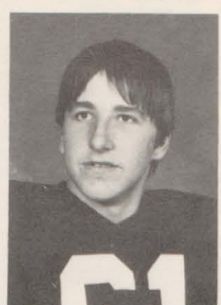

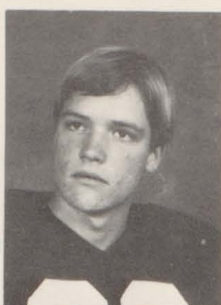

The W.H.S. cross country team went all the way this year, taking AA Division and continuing on to take State. The runners that went to State were: Ricky G. Baker, Wendell Navenma, Albert Susunkewa, Loren Kewaniptewa, Lee Sockyma, James Parker, Alvin Kooyahoema, and Wilmer Saufkie, manager. The outstanding runners were Ricky G. Baker, James Parker, and Wendell Navenma.

Mr. Conatser said that they took turns beating each other in competition and that it was primarily a team effort that helped them take State, rather than individual effort. There were no records broken, but the team members returning next year will keep on trying.

VARSITY TAKES DIVISION

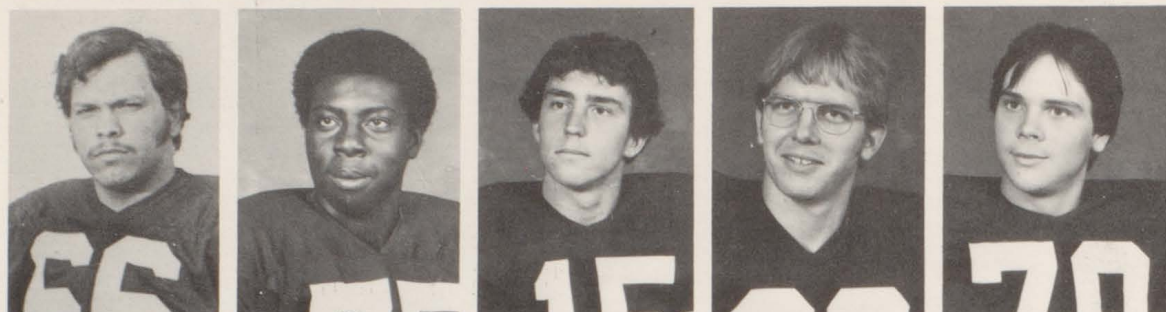

The Winslow High fightin' Bulldogs had a 9-0 season and took AA division. The team made it all the way to State, where they lost to Canyon del Oro. Statistics show that the Bulldogs' undefeated season was of great importance, because although several teams have gone to State and several have taken State only four teams can brag that they had an undefeated season, and these were: 1927, 1964, 1965, and 1976. One of the pep buses broke down on the way to the game and only saw the last 10 minutes of the State game.

ORCHESTRA

The orchestra performed several concerts in Winslow during the 1976-77 year. In October, the members made a trip to Phoenix to play at the State Fair. Highlights of the spring semester included an overnight tour to the valley with 3 concerts, and a trip to the NAU Music Festival, where the orchestra's fine performance earned a Superior rating. Officers who served for the year were Valerie Bryson, president; Donna Hartshorn, vice-president; Diane Scheid, secretary-treasurer; Rosie Scott, representative; Nancy Clubbs, librarian; and Janice Henrie, orchestra manager.

CONCERT CHOIR, TREBLE CHOIR, MADRIGAL

The W.H.S. Concert Choir had six concerts during the year. They also sang at graduation and participated in the Musical. They went on a joint trip with the orchestra to the State Fair in Phoenix. As they sang, they found that even Phoenix gets cold when it rains and the wind blows on an open stage. On March 18 the Concert Choir earned a superior rating at the NAU Festival. To earn money for their tour on April 20 and 21, they sold tickets to the concerts and sold crocks of cheese.

The Treble Choir also had six concerts and received a good rating at the NAU Festival. The group progressed well, according to Mr. Slotterback the director of the group, because at the beginning of the year they had problems in singing even one part but in the end they did very well with songs that contained three parts.

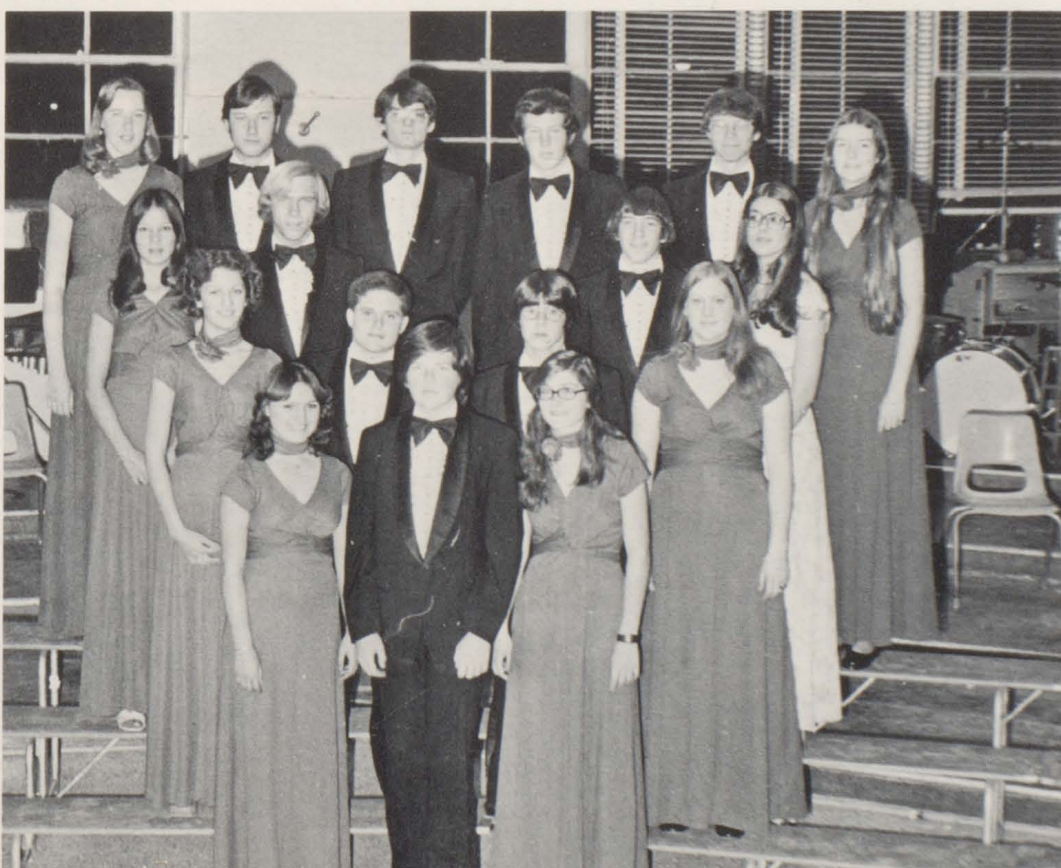

The Madrigal Choir is a selected choir that sings most of their songs acapella. This select group performed twice at the Falcon Restaurant besides singing at the regular concerts. They received an excellent rating at the NAU Festival. Mr. Floyd Slotterback directed all three choirs this year.

JOURNALISM

The journalism staff produced the BULLDOG BARKS for the reading pleasure of the students at Winslow High School. Nine issues were published. The staff changed positions for the second semester so that more than one person could hold a position. So the two editors were Tom Benham for the first semester and Leellen MacLean for the second semester.

In addition to this, the photo club also provided photographs for various publications, including the Winslow Mail and several magazines.

The purpose of F.H.A. is to help teach girls, and/or boys, more about home life and about the household, to develop them for future life. The club sold tostadas at Christmas to raise money. They held a Halloween party which Miss Marilyn Faris claims was a "successful Halloween party." The club came back after being disbanded for awhile. The president was Linda Pugh with Grace Dixon as vice president, Sharon Poolheco, secretary, and Kathy Hernandez, treasurer. Future Homemakers of America is affiliated with the state and national program.

At the Regional Conference, Linda Hopper won first in Accounting competition, and Karen Abeita and Caroline Perez won first in the Poster Making competition. BULLDOG BOOSTERS

After a year of hard work, the staff finally completed this yearbook. We hope that you enjoy it. No one but those on a yearbook staff knows how much time, energy, and hard work must go into a yearbook. I hope you can use this yearbook to remember the good times you had at WHS. I would like to thank the staff, the photographers, the artists, the advisors, and the people who bought advertising for all they did to help make this book possible. I would also like to thank you, the reader, for supporting the annual staff during this school year. And for the Mighty Class of 1977, I hope that every member can enjoy life and have a great future.

Cindy Wilhelm
